- Median rents were £529pcm in 2016;
- Only 11% of properties come onto the market that are within Local Housing Allowance levels [last 3 years];
- Purchase average sold prices £187k;
- Average income levels £23,488

Housing (Wales) Act 2014

- Key homelessness provisions came into force April 2015;
- New duties to prevent and relieve homelessness;
- Positive impacts:-

more preventative, person centred and outcome focussed approach

Some stats – 2 years in...

- 2016/2017, 62% homelessness assessed as ‘threatened with homelessness, successfully prevented’;
- 41% success rate recorded in homelessness relief cases (resolution of actual homelessness through intervention);
- Number of priority need households assisted under new duty to secure accommodation, is much lower than under previous Act;

However

- Rise in cases which fall out of the system due to non-cooperation;
- Rise in rough sleeping (scale unclear).

Background prior to Housing First Project

- Homeless people over 25 including rough sleepers and people who experience repeat homelessness
- Bangor University recommended a homeless hostel to replace night shelter
- HB refused Night Shelter payments
- Supporting People Operational Plan 2012/2013 housing support services procurement priority

HOUSING FIRST

“Appropriate accommodation should be the starting point and as a prerequisite for solving other social and health problems”

The Finnish Homelessness Strategy : From a ‘Staircase’ Model to a ‘Housing First’ Approach to Tackling Long-Term

Homelessness - Hannele Tainio and Peter Fredriksson

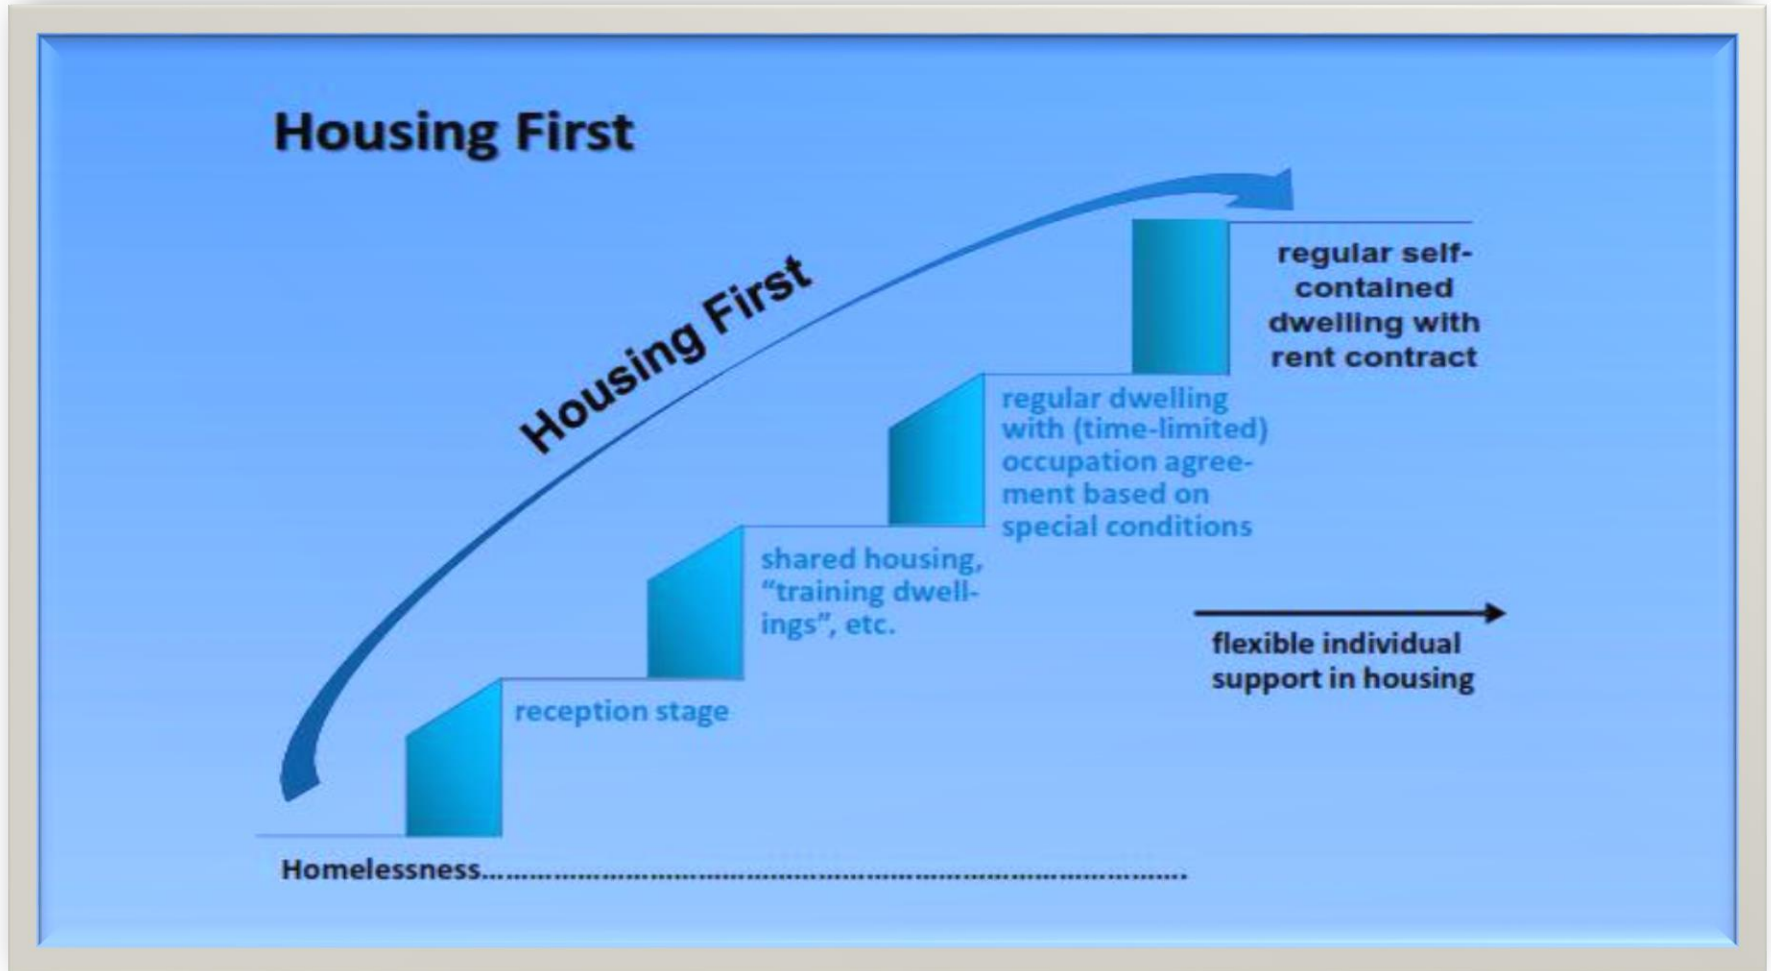

Housing First as we have interpreted it in Anglesey

- A model that centres on quickly moving people experiencing homelessness into independent and permanent housing and then providing additional support and services as needed;
- Most homeless people referred to Housing First have complex needs;
- Treats formerly homeless people as normal citizens, rather than clients or patients;
- Everyone is 'housing ready';
- No conditions attached to the offer of accommodation;

8 core principles

- Housing is a human right
- Service users should have choice and control over the service
- Housing should be separate to treatment
- Planning of support should be person-centred
- Recovery orientation
- Harm reduction
- Active encouragement without coercion
- Flexible support for as long as is required

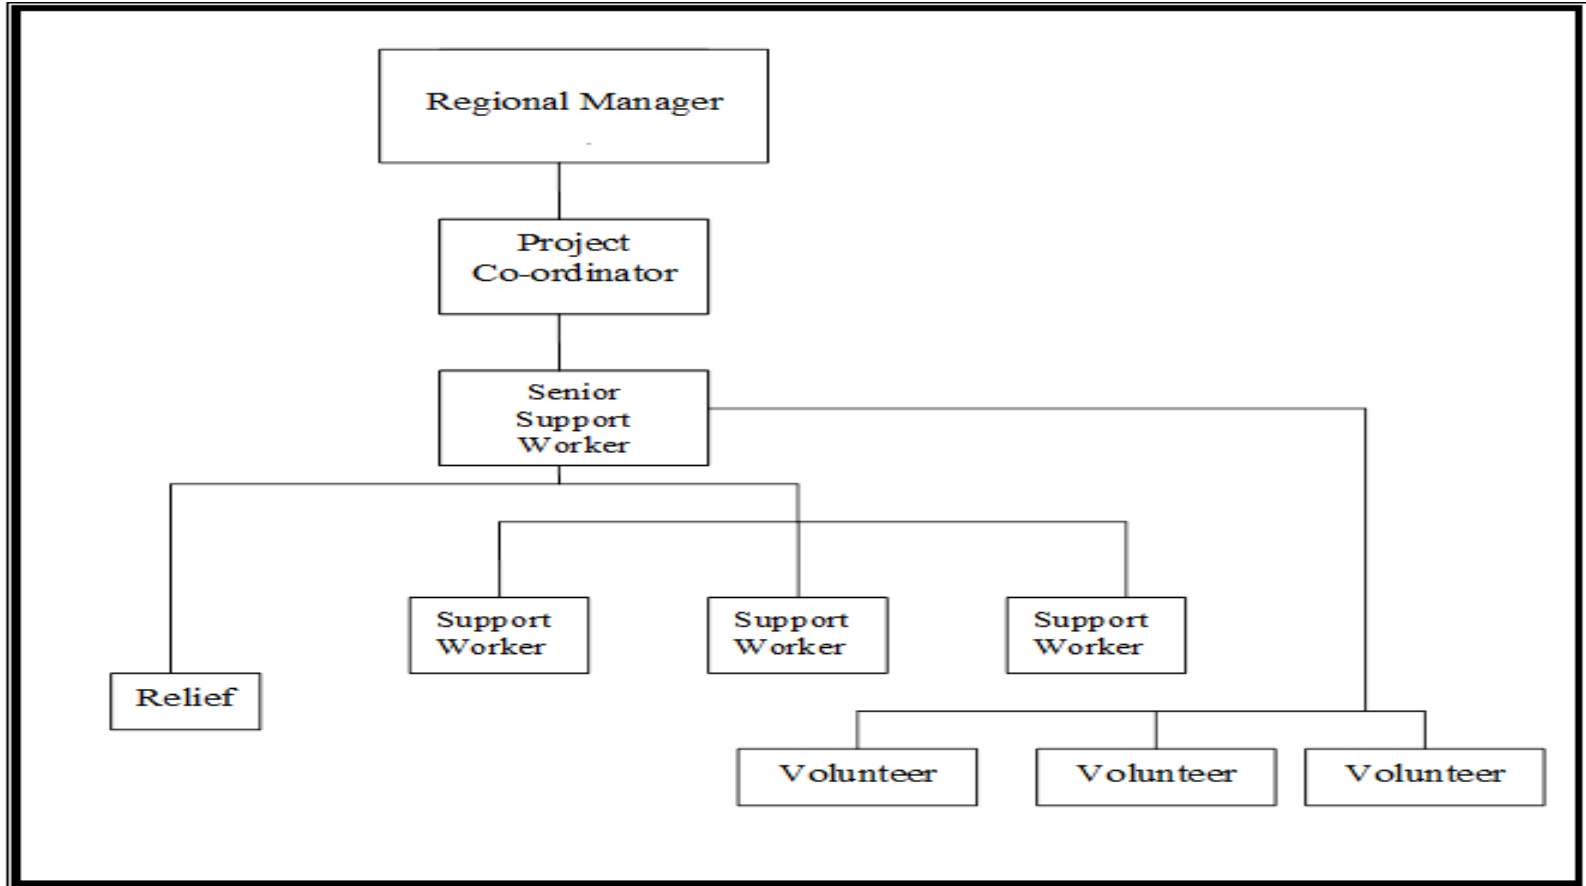

Removing the Linear Approach

Service Specification

- 12 units initially – subsequently increased to 14, 17 and now 20
- Rough sleeper & reducing repeat homelessness expertise aged 25 years and over
- Individual budget element
- Immediate access to dispersed-site permanent accommodation
- No abstinence or treatment prerequisites
- Robust and effective risk management policies and procedures
- Assertive and comprehensive – ‘Whatever It Takes Approach’
- In partnership with other agencies
- Not time-limited (although continuing support is reviewed regularly)
- Harm reduction approach to substance misuse
- ‘Rapid re-housing’ of street homeless people
- Access to support is 24/7 including on call service at night
- Person-centered
- Outcome focused

The Wallich Staffing Structure

Comments from Housing First customers

The Wallich is a much need service that has a valuable impact within the community. I do not know where I would be without them. Actually I do (I'd be homeless, physically, mentally, emotionally, deteriorating

Because you get 100% support – they are totally professional, caring, easy to get hold of, easy to get along with, non-confrontational and extremely understanding

“I would definitely recommend the Wallich they are great”

*Happened quickly.
Happy with the service*

Everybody needs help from time to time and this service gives that in bucket loads.

I could not get any better service – I have had 24/7 support with someone always at the end of the phone should I need it. In my opinion this is what people need

My future looks bright, thanks to the Wallich.

Recent policy announcement

- Welsh Government announced additional transitional funding including Housing First;
- IoACC Supporting People re-tendering the Housing First model, with a view of extending number of units to be supported
