Coronavirus (COVID-19) and housing associations: a guide

1. Context and key updates

This resource

This resource has been created for housing associations to support with their preparations around, and response to, the outbreak of COVID-19. We hope it will also help HAs to form guidance for their own audiences including tenants. Please note this resource is a consolidation of official guidance, and is not guidance created by CHC.

Legislation (Welsh Government)

Taking all reasonable measures to maintain physical distancing in the workplace: Guidance under regulation 7A of the Health Protection \(Coronavirus Restrictions\) \(Wales\) Regulations 2020, 12th May.

To reflect changes in the Coronavirus legislation and guidance on the law, amendments have been made to the Health Protection \(Coronavirus Restrictions\) \(Wales\) Regulations 2020 (30th May).

Welsh Government previously laid a Statutory Instrument which details enforcement of restrictions on movement and gatherings, and published Q&A style guidance to support individuals and organisations in complying with this.

The Coronavirus Act is emergency legislation to respond to the outbreak, and was passed by UK Government in March. It empowers Welsh Government to act in a range of areas, including:

3. Communication

The contents of this document should provide content for communications and will be updated regularly. We will also be sharing up to date UK Government and Public Health Wales guidance from our CHC Twitter handle (@CHCymru).

With tenants

When developing questions for tenants prior to contact with staff, housing associations may wish to have regard to a combination of the new guidance on self-isolation and, additionally for travel questions, the withdrawn guidance on returning travellers.

UK Government have issued the following guidance documents in a range of languages, including Welsh, Arabic, Polish, Portuguese and Urdu:

This group is accessible by staff nominated by each member housing association. If you would like access to this group, please ask permission from your chief executive, and then contact Bryony Haynes on bryony-haynes@chcymru.org.uk. An additional shared resource exists with access for nominated staff from each housing association to detail their response to the outbreak.

For communications colleagues, the PR Strategic Delivery Group is being utilised to share practice. If you would like to join this group please contact Rebecca Goodhand on rebecca-goodhand@chcymru.org.uk.

4. Staff & employment

Furloughing

HMRC guidance on furloughing staff through the Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme.

Furloughing update, 29th May

The next steps of the furloughing scheme have been confirmed by the UK Government, until the end of October 2020.

From 1st July, employers can bring back to work employees that have previously been furloughed for any amount of time and any shift pattern, while still being able to claim CJRS grant for their normal hours not worked. When claiming the CJRS grant for furloughed hours, employers will need to report and claim for a minimum period of a week.

The scheme will close to new entrants from 30th June. From this point onwards, employers will only be able to furlough employees that they have furloughed for a full 3 week period prior to 30th June.

This means that the final date by which an employer can furlough an employee for the first time will be 10th June, in order for the current 3 week furlough period to be completed by 30th June.

Employers will have until 31st July to make any claims in respect of the period to 30 June. Further guidance on flexible furloughing and how employers should calculate claims will be published on 12th June.

Online training

Welsh Government has given furloughed workers access to informal e-learning provision through websites such as Working Wales and Careers Wales. The e-learning provision on offer is aimed at supporting individuals to update skills, maintain mental health and help them think about future careers options.

7. Welfare & Universal Credit

New Universal Credit Claims

The DWP have advised that people making new claims for Universal Credit will no longer need to call the Department as part of the process.

Increase in Working Tax Credits

Working Tax Credits payments will be increased from 6 April 2020, as one of a number of changes to welfare benefits announced by UK Government earlier this year. More detail can be found in our recent welfare briefing.

Recovery of benefit overpayments

On 3rd April, the Department for Work and Pensions announced it had temporarily paused the recovery of benefit overpayments for three months, in response to the COVID-19 outbreak.

Deductions for the recovery of Universal Credit and legacy benefit overpayments, Social Fund loans and Tax Credit debts will be paused. The recovery of Advances by deduction from Universal Credit payments will continue.

The majority of deductions will be suspended automatically. However, tenants should contact their bank to cancel repayment arrangements if they currently make repayments through a Bank Standing Order, Bank Giro Credit or through online banking.

Landlord Portal

On 25th March, the DWP issued a note to landlords using the Landlord Portal Service:

In order to help Landlords implement their own business continuity arrangements in response to the current UK Government advice on Coronavirus (COVID19); we have removed the current IP address restrictions relating to the Landlord Portal. Please note the following:

- As landlords, you are responsible for controlling access to your own Portal. You should regularly review who currently has access to the Portal and their user roles/permissions
- Review of user roles by any Portal User who has the Manage Users role assigned to them (usually the Primary or Deputy Primary User) and is accessible via the Users tab at the top of the portal home screen

Coronavirus (COVID-19) and housing associations: a guide

Housing Queries Routeway

The DWP have issued an online resource as a first port of call for queries around Universal Credit, entitled Universal Credit: Housing Queries Routeway.

8. Tenancies & evictions

Guidance for landlords, tenants and local authorities

On 1st June, the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government issued updated landlord and tenant guidance, alongside updated guidance for local authorities on enforcement action and a change to the technical guidance on evictions.

Whilst this is UK Government guidance applying mostly to England, some of the measures referred to also apply in Wales. You can find guidance from the Welsh Government here.

Evictions (including community safety & domestic violence)

In an announcement on the evening of 26th March, the Judiciary took the decision to suspend all court action relating to evictions from the 27th March. This suspension will last for 90 days, initially, with the potential for extension. This action is in addition to the changes laid out in the Coronavirus Act 2020. A full briefing on the Act is available from CHC.

CHC are working closely with the WLGA to ensure that alternative services and provisions are available to tackle domestic violence during the period where eviction of perpetrators will not be possible.

9. Homelessness

10. Tenants

Supporting & delivering services to tenants affected by COVID-19

Coronavirus (COVID-19) and housing associations: a guide

On 28th April, Welsh Government released guidance for dealing with people who are unwilling or unable to self-isolate or follow coronavirus lockdown instructions (updated 29th May).

Welsh Government has issued guidance for tenants renting in both private and social housing in Wales, and have asked that this guidance is shared as widely as possible. This is to ensure that tenants have the right information in order to act quickly and put measures in place which will improve their physical and emotional well-being during the crisis, but also to prevent housing issues escalating in the months following Covid-19. Julie James AM, Minister for Housing and Local Government, has released an accompanying Written Statement, outlining support available for tenants and highlighting the work carried out by public, private and third sector organisations operating across Wales.

We are working with Welsh Government and the HSE to obtain developed guidance on the delivery of services to tenants' homes. Currently, the guidance for social, community or residential care may provide interim advice. UK Government advice on home care visits provides some transferable guidance.

Welsh Government has issued guidance for social landlords outlining what to do if there is a case of COVID-19 at a property.

An example of guidance produced by a housing association for staff visiting homes is available in our Yammer group.

Violence prevention

The Wales Violence Prevention Unit is monitoring the relationship between the COVID-19 pandemic and various forms of violence and abuse, including how the outbreak is adversely impacting levels of violence in the home. As part of their Information Hub, the VPU has also developed a suite of materials to support professionals and service providers.

Protecting tenants who are extremely vulnerable

In April, all those identified as being at a very high risk of severe illness from coronavirus (due to a serious underlying health issue) received a shielding letter from the Chief Medical Officer for Wales.

On 31st May the Chief Medical Officer for Wales updated his advice to those who are shielding. From 1st June the advice allowed unlimited exercise outdoors, and also indicated that those shielding could meet with members of one other household outdoors, as long as strict physical distancing and hygiene practices are adhered to. These changes, whilst modest, were a significant change for those who are shielding, some of whom had not left their homes for over 10 weeks.

It was announced on 4th June that almost 130,000 people will start receiving letters from the Chief Medical Officer for Wales setting out the latest advice to protect them from coronavirus.

Coronavirus (COVID-19) and housing associations: a guide

They will be asked to continue shielding until 16 August, but the letter will also describe how the medical advice has changed to enable them to go outdoors to meet other people for the first time since the start of the pandemic.

- Written Statement from Vaughan Gething, Minister for Health and Social Services: Shielding update, 1st June
- Guidance on shielding and protecting people defined on medical grounds as extremely vulnerable from coronavirus, updated 1st June
- Written Statement from Vaughan Gething, Minister for Health and Social Services: Shielding update – Shielding after 15 June, 4th June
- CMO letter to extremely vulnerable people: support explained

We note that records for shielding letters are unlikely to be complete, and so housing associations may wish to have regard to guidance on protection measures when communicating with and supporting their tenants.

Managing isolation in schemes with communal spaces

Welsh Government guidance for social, community or residential care settings lays out guidance for the isolation of residents in these settings. In lieu of guidance for other settings, this guidance could be considered.

Latest UK Government guidance on social distancing and self-isolation should also be considered.

11. Safety and compliance

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) share regular updates on their website, for example:

- Working safely during the coronavirus outbreak, including guides on Working safely during the coronavirus outbreak and Talking with your workers about preventing coronavirus.
- Face mask fit-testing
- Protecting home workers
- RIDDOR reporting of COVID-19

Flexibility in compliance due to access restrictions

We are working in partnership with the other UK housing federations to influence statutory regulators (Gas Safe, HSE etc.) on a flexible approach to statutory compliance in the situation that significant numbers of homes cannot be accessed for testing/inspection due to the outbreak. This area of work is a priority for CHC.

Gas safety

Coronavirus (COVID-19) and housing associations: a guide

On 30th March, Welsh Government released its guidance for local authorities on the enforcement of standards in rented properties in Wales, which advises LAs on how to effectively enforce standards in the private rented sector (including housing associations/ registered social landlords). The guidance reiterates that landlords are required to have annual gas safety checks. It also states that if a landlord can show they have taken all reasonable steps to comply with their duty, they are not in breach of the duty. Showing reasonable steps includes keeping copies of all communications had with tenants and gas safety inspectors.

CHC have commissioned Devonshires Solicitors to help us understand the legal, regulatory and practical issues around gas safety compliance. Devonshires have produced a briefing note, which you can find here.

Current guidance from Gas Safe on compliance with gas testing can be found here.

Fire safety

The National Fire Chiefs Council (NFCC) provides guidance on a number of topics. On 25th March they issued guidance on the use of waking watches where a stay-put strategy has been suspended.
